

I PLANTED A SEED

I planted a seed
To watch it grow
What will it be
I don't know
I waited
And watered
And watched every day
To see what the seed
Would be today

Today it is...
(Say whatever you want.)

How can this be?
People might say
What kind of seed
Would grow this way?
Then I would say
Without hesitation
The seed, you see,
Is my imagination
