

IF I GAVE YOU A PROMISE

If I gave you a promise
Would you promise to keep it?
Put it under your pillow
So you could dream it?
Would you take it on walks
And give it fresh air?
Would you help it to grow
With lots of attention and care?
Would you take it with you
Wherever you went?
Would you always protect it
Even when you are scared?
Because it's very special
My promise to you
It's very special
In case you never knew
That I will love you forever
That's my promise to you
I will love you forever
Yes, indeed, I do
