

BLOODY NUSANCE

Sure scarfed that puppy down, didn't ya love. Poor thing didn't stand a chance. (laugh) Mind if I talk? Some people mind if I talk while they're eating. Though I can't see why. I mean, as long as I'm the one doing the talking. Still, all the same, some people are put right off by a bit of chit chat at the dinner table. More coffee, luv?
