

LIFE BEGINS AGAIN

I don't think God would have made a very good gardener. I have every faith the Garden of Eden was overgrown and unruly. The perfect place for original sin. With its pauper rich rosy red apple dangling in a tree inhabited by a serpent. God obviously wasn't on top of His pest control either. I wonder if Adam had hay fever? Can you imagine being allergic to knowledge or self awareness?

For full monologue contact me at me@johnmcgie.com.