

POSITIVE

I'm pretty positive I'm not positive. Sure, for sure, I'm not sure that we're, meaning me when I talk in the third person to compensate for issues I haven't come to terms with or have yet to identify, am happy from time to time. I'm hopefully haphazardly happily half happy. Gratefully gleeful. Glass half full. That way if you spill you get more wet. And who wouldn't want to be more wet?
