

SASQUATCH

Sasquatch. Sure. Why wouldn't I believe in them? You go to church? Well, I guess we all got to believe in something, don't we? Mine's just a little more realistic, that's all. You probably think I'm crazy. Well, maybe. How does anyone really know if they're crazy or not? If you're crazy, you think you're fine. If you're not crazy, you think you're fine. Who's to know for sure. I like it out here. It's quiet. I man can think for himself.
