

VIBRATORS

Hello. It is with an elocution absolution that my rat-a-tat-tat tongue clacking commentary shall descend on you, the dimwitted, with oratory attacks of well-worn wisdom that shall be given without permission to you who don't need it but who I am convinced should want it...she said out loud in the hopes someone would listen. My mission, which has been charged to me, is to set you free. Through my particular belief system, which was forced on me by my parents, you will become enlightened, as a forty watt lightbulb.
