

VOTE FOR ME

Ladies and gentlemen it is with the truly abominable and astronomically asinine hook-line-and-sinkers that tend to linger on my tongue when I say “Hey! What’s done is done.” “Don’t live in the past.” “Look to the future.” I then shall plant or present some event or slogan to open my campaign as insane as that might sound seeing as I’ve been found guilty on numerous charges of discrepancy and corruption though nothing’s been done or begun to specifically specify the decrying propensity for a densely populated to-dumb-to-be-dense defense of dunces sitting on the fence wrenching out spent wisdom as new ideas and leading by example by examining examples of leading concocted by reading reports of report writing reporting on leading. Bleating sheep in wool suits set to serve by conniving and quietly conquering the desperate electorate.

For full monologue contact me at me@johnmcgie.com.