

COW IN THE MAIL

LING        You weren't here.

BLOTT      I was meant to be?

LING        You were meant to be.

BLOTT      Was I?

LING        You were.

BLOTT      Odd.

LING        You are usually quite good about these things.

BLOTT      Yes, I'm usually quite good about these things.

LING        Perhaps you misunderstood?

BLOTT      No, I understood.

LING        It must have been my fault then.

BLOTT      I don't see how.

LING        Well, it doesn't appear to be your fault.

BLOTT      So, therefore, it must be yours?

LING        Apparently. (beat) I feel just terrible about this.

BLOTT      Now, now. I only kept you waiting for two hours.

LING        Yes. But it could have been more. I would have felt just awful if I had made you keep me waiting for say three or four hours.

BLOTT      Don't give it another thought. What's done is done.

LING        You are all to kind.
