

MONEY RABBITS

1 I can't go on.
2 Do try, Radcliff.
3 Yes, do try.
2 It's not much further.
1 I'm sorry lads. I'm done for. Best save yourselves. Go on without me.
2 I say not.
3 As do I.
2 I would never leave you, Radcliff.
3 Nor I.
2 Unless it was for a very good reason.
3 Oh, yes. If it was a good reason.
2 Then I would leave you flat.
3 As would I.
2 But it would have to be a good reason.
3 Or at least one I understood.
2 Or if money was involved. There isn't any money involved, Radcliff. Is there?
1 Yes.
2 Oh, well then.
3 That does present a bit of a pickle.
2 Changes everything.
1 It's not very much money.
2 It's the principal of the thing.
3 Money's money.
1 A mere pittance, really.
2 Can you buy stuff with it?
1 Well, yes. I suppose.
2 That's good enough for me.
3 Yes. I'd sell you out as long as I could buy something.

For the entire skit contact me at me@johnmcgie.com.